Capt Macaulay will take the Mikahala down this evening with Capt Campbell as a passenger.
The bark Ceylon and the barkentine Discovery leave for San Francisco tomorrow.
Two of the Salvation Army's men were holding a meeting on the wharf this morning.
Numerous anglers were along the water-front this morning.
The barkentine W H Dimond left at noon to-day with a cargo of general merchandise, a mail and two passengers.
Four whalers are now on the way from New Bedford for this port en route to the Arctic.

UNNECESSARY SUFFERING.

There is little doubt but that many persons suffer for years with ailments that could easily be cured by the use of some simple remedy. The following incident is an illustration of this fact: My wife was troubled with a pain in her side the greater part of the time for three years, until cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has, I think, permanently cured her. We also have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy whenever needed and believe it to be the best in the world.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The S. S. Australia will leave San Francisco for this port October 31.
Six fines for drunkenness were recorded in the criminal Police calendar to-day.

In a contest with the elements yesterday evening the Royal Hawaiian Military Band retired in short order.

The barkentine W. H. Dimond sailed at noon to-day carrying the following mail: 773 letters and 513 papers.

The annual meeting of the Hono-kua Sugar Co. will be held to-morrow at 10 o'clock, at the office of F. A.
Schaefer & Co.

Mr. Wray Taylor will give the second of his series of organ recitals at Kaunakapili Church this evening at 7:45 o'clock.

The barkentine Discovery will leave to-morrow for San Francisco.
Captain McNeill will try to overtake the Dimond before the latter enters the Golden Gate.

The departure of the steamer W. G.
Hall was quite interesting this morning. The Salvation Army had an opposition party in a late Justice of the Peace for Hanalei, Kauai.

Mr. J. J. Williams, the photographer, took passage on the steamer W. G. Hall this morning for the Volcano. He intends taking panoramic views of Madame Pele for transmission abroad, returning on the same steamer.

To LAY unruly hands on a politician is a very costly undertaking as instanced by a fine of $25 and costs imposed on J. McVeigh in the Police Court this morning for "laying out" the vice-president of the Mechanics' Union, Mr. Dan McKenzie.

A LARGE party will leave for Kauai on the steamer Mikahala this afternoon to attend the marriage ceremony and reception of Hon. P. Isenberg and Miss McBryde, of that place.
The Hawaiian Quintet Club, including several band boys, accompanied the party.

The Onomea Sugar Co. elected the following officers for the ensuing term at their annual meeting held to-day:
Hon. J. B. Atherton, President; Hon.
J. O. Carter, Vice-President; Mr. Geo.
P. Castle, Secretary; Mr. G. H.
Robertson, Treasurer; Mr. W. A.
Bowen, Auditor.

The stockholders of the Waianae Sugar Co. elected the following officers at the annual meeting held yesterday: Hon. H. A. Widemann, President; Hon. G. N. Wilcox, Vice-President; Mr. A. Jaeger, Treasurer; Hon. C. O. Berger, Secretary; Mr. J.
M. Dowsett, Auditor.

A CHINESE hay wagon broke down yesterday afternoon near the Government building, at least the horse did.
The animal lay on the ground some time, across the track, greatly inconveniencing passing vehicles. The horse was finally dragged to one side of the street, where he lay for some time.

ABOUT fifty persons were in attendance at the Y. M. C. A. hall last evening, at the first of the series of studies in the book of Romans, conducted by Mr. G. B. Starr, of Chicago. Considering that this was the first evening and that a number of other meetings were in session, in other parts of the city, this was not a bad beginning; a larger attendance may be expected this evening. The singing was led by Miss Beckwith and Mrs. Damon, and a number of ladies were in attendance. The study to-night covers chapters three and four. Meeting opens at 7:30 continuing one hour.
All are cordially invited to attend.

THE BRITISH CLUB.

Opening of the Handsome New Building.

The British Club has taken off the hands of the contractor, Mr. E. B.
Thomas, its new building situated between Alakea and Union streets, near Beretania street and opposite the Hawaiian Hotel. Luncheon was served to members for the first time in the new building at noon to-day, by Steward Mariano, whose abilities as a caterer set the standard for Honolulu.

The main building is 64 feet 6 inches by 47 feet on the ground plan. It is a combination of the Eastlake and Queen Anne styles of architecture. Mr. I. A. Palmer was the architect. The entire cost of building and new furniture will be about $10,000.

The club lot fronts 100 feet on Alakea, and about the same on Union street. As previously recorded in this paper, by an exchange of "jogs" of ground with Mr. A. J. Cartwright the club was able, before building, to square its site. The new building is a rather imposing structure of wood two stories high. Inviting-looking verandas, on both flats, 60 feet long and 12 feet wide, cover the breadth of the main front on Alakea street. Pillars and arches of verandas are ornate without any gingerbread appearance. From a wide front door a hall 10 feet wide runs to the back door. In this hall near the servants' stations is an electric bell indicator, by which calls can be made from any of the rooms by pressing a button. While on electricity it should be noted that the building is being fitted throughout with electric lights by the Hawaiian Electric Company.

Entering from Alakea to the right you are ushered into the billiard room, a wainscoted apartment 26 feet by 46 feet. It contains two tables, another to be added. There are snug lockers on the inner side for the use of members. Across the hall is a smoking and lounging room, 26 feet by 26 feet, fitted with sideboard and lockers. All the rooms above and below are 14 feet high.

A dressing room with lavatory is in rear of the smoking room. It is 12ft. x 15ft., and flanked by a commodious bathroom. Then across a small hall are the sanitary requirements with modern appliances. An ice chest is placed under the stairs at the far end of the main hall. On the lower floor of a wing facing Union street are the servants' and store rooms, from which a stairway leads to kitchen and pantry upstairs.

The main stairway springs from near the middle of the hall, facing the front entrance, and has one turn at right angles from a rest midway.
On the left-hand side, front, looking toward Alakea street, is the reading room, 24ft. x 40ft. Rear of that are two private card rooms, each 14ft. square, connected with large swinging doors on rollers, whereby they may be thrown into one apartment.
Either singly or doubly they are designed for private dinner parties when so required. A hall from front to rear divides the three rooms just mentioned from the dining room.
This is spacious, being 24 feet by 46. A long table extends lengthwise of the room, surrounded with very comfortable chairs.

The British Club has survived several national clubs in Honolulu, which flourished for a time and then went under. Having a cosmopolitan constitution it admits gentlemen of other nationalities than that its name indicates. With such a handsome new home as the one now sketchily described, the British Club has apparently entered a fresh career of prosperity. The new building makes a conspicuous enhancement of appearances in that part of the town where it is situated. With Mr.
Cartwright's remodeled residence adjacent, and the imposing Hawaiian Hotel, Honolulu Library, Y. M. C. A. building and Mr. T. C. Porter's graceful new cottage all within sight of the new Club, owners of property in that locality will be stimulated to arise and build fabrics in keeping with such a respectable environment.

piano and several other instruments.

least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recom-
